

■ The Cape Town International Convention Centre hosted a Youth Day programme for pupils from Mitchell's Plain and Khayelitsha focusing on the power of young people to make a change in their community, city and country.